The Scarborough Philharmonic celebrates its musicians!

Toronto, ON. - On Sunday, March 28th, the Scarborough Philharmonic Orchestra will present the fourth concert of their historic 30th anniversary season, Celebrating our Soloists!, featuring some of the SPO's principal players in concertos by Richard Strauss, Carl Maria von Weber and W. A. Mozart.

Principal horn Iris Krizmanic will perform Strauss' virtuosic First Horn Concerto. Iris, a graduate of the Glenn Gould School, also plays horn with the Niagara Symphony as well as being an accomplished cellist and soprano!

Kaye Royer holds the position of principal clarinet with the Toronto Sinfonietta, Brantford Symphony, Canadian Sinfonietta and the Scarborough Philharmonic. Kaye appears frequently as a soloist, and performs regularly with many other Ontario orchestras. She will take centre stage in Weber's sparkling First Clarinet Concerto.

Concertmaster Corey Gemmell and principal violist Julian Knight will come together to play Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante for violin and viola. Corey, recently the concertmaster for The Sound of Music at the Princess of Wales Theatre in Toronto, has distinguished himself as a soloist and chamber musician with performances in Canada, Germany, the United States and China. Julian is a Juilliard graduate who is currently a member of Sinfonia Toronto as well as principal violist of both the Mississauga Symphony and the SPO.

Rounding out the program are two favourite Classical overtures: from Mozart's opera Don Giovanni and Beethoven's ballet score for The Creatures of Prometheus.

Please note that this concert is at a new time for the SPO: Sunday afternoon. Families are welcome!
