A Celebration of French Music

Beloved music by Berlioz, Debussy, Ravel, Fauré, Saint-Saens, and Georges Hüe's sparkling Fantasia for Flute, along with a new piece by Alex Eddington inspired by the Québécois folk music tradition and commissioned for the SPO's 30th anniversary.

Saturday, December 5th, 2009 at 8:00pm

A Holiday Celebration

The Toronto Choral Society and conductor Geoffrey Butler join maestro Howard Cable in a concert of seasonal music including selections from J.S. Bach's Christmas Oratorio.

Saturday, February 27th, 2010 at 8:00pm

A Celebration of Russian Music

The SPO joins forces with the Toronto Choral Society once again in a joint concert of masterworks by Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninov and Borodin, a 30th-anniversary commission from Canadian composer Kevin Lau, as well as Khachaturian's brilliant Spartacus Suite.

Sunday, March 28th, 2010 at 3:00pm

Celebrating Soloists of the SPO

Musicians from the Scarborough Philharmonic's own ranks perform concertos by Mozart, Weber and Richard Strauss, paired with Mozart's Don Giovanni overture and Beethoven's stirring overture to The Creatures of Prometheus.

Saturday, May 15th, 2010 at 8:00pm

30th Anniversary Concert - featuring The Gryphon Trio

Canada's celebrated ensemble The Gryphon Trio stars in Ronald Royer's Sinfonia Concertante for Piano Trio and Orchestra, in a program that also features Tchaikovsky's rarely-performed Third Symphony, and a new celebratory 30th anniversary commission from Canadian composer Chris Meyer.
